VISION

A faded, sepia-toned photograph of a group of students walking up a set of concrete steps towards a building entrance. The students are dressed in casual attire typical of the 1970s or 80s. The building has large glass windows and a modern architectural style. The overall tone is nostalgic and institutional.

FOR "SILVER" SERVICE

We wish to honor our President, Wilford Franklin Lown, for his dedicated service to Manhattan Christian College over the past twenty-five years. President Lown has been a truly devoted and diligent Christian leader, and because of our sincere appreciation and love for him this 1979 Vision is dedicated to him.

"Bill Lown and I go back in time to our student days at Manhattan, and our friendship has been rich in every way. We have shared the valleys and shadows with our loved ones. We have walked the mountain tops in earthly view as well as the spiritual peaks in large and small Christian assemblies. He is the one among all the many brothers in the faith with whom I feel the most comradeship. He is truly a man of faith, vision, commitment. I welcome this opportunity to express this tribute to him at this time."

Leonard G. Wymore
NACC Convention Director

"I appreciate W. F. Lown and his 25 years of leadership with Manhattan Christian College. He has been wonderfully steadfast, singleminded, and hard working in his zeal for excellence. The Christian ministry, in his eyes, is never to be taken lightly; it is not something for those who just want to "get by" — it deserves excellence!

"In his role he has felt deeply the meaning of presence and has grown stronger with every ounce of it simply because he has remained constantly in the Presence of that One who empowers and enables.

"Bill Lown has never flinched from the difficult, has never been satisfied with giving less than his best, has always encouraged the same from those who have worked with him in the Father's business. I praise God for his positive influence on my own life and ministry, and on the countless others who have been and are being touched by our Lord through his labors."

Darel Boston

"Bill Lown has distinguished himself as a persuasive and articulate scholar and communicator of the Gospel, as a Christian gentleman, and as a leader among leaders over the past 25 years as President of Manhattan Christian College.

"The impact of his life on the lives of all of us who have received our education at Manhattan Christian College over the past quarter of a century and beyond is well attested to and appreciated throughout the brotherhood and the world.

"On behalf of the Board of Trustees and myself, I am pleased to express our deep gratitude for his leadership and for his unwavering commitment to the essential role of the equipping ministry in God's great scheme of redemption."

Kenneth Cable, President
Board of Trustees

"My friendship with W. F. "Bill" Lown has spanned 36 years. During those years my admiration and respect for him has continued to grow. It is not often one finds the qualities of a pastor, preacher, administrator, counselor, and scholar so well blended within one personality. His love for Christ and His Church is evident in his strong, patient, and persevering service. His inclusive, optimistic spirit has given him an effective voice among those who seek the unity of the Church. A man whose words are carefully chosen, he is an able communicator of Christian truth to a wide audience. In short, "Bill" Lown is God's man, fulfilling his ministry in such a way as to "set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith, and in purity" (1 Timothy 4:12)."

A NEW BEGINNING

Leaving home, meeting new students, renewing old relationships, enrollment, buying books, moving into the dorm, freshman orientation — all of these experiences were a part of getting settled during the first week of school.

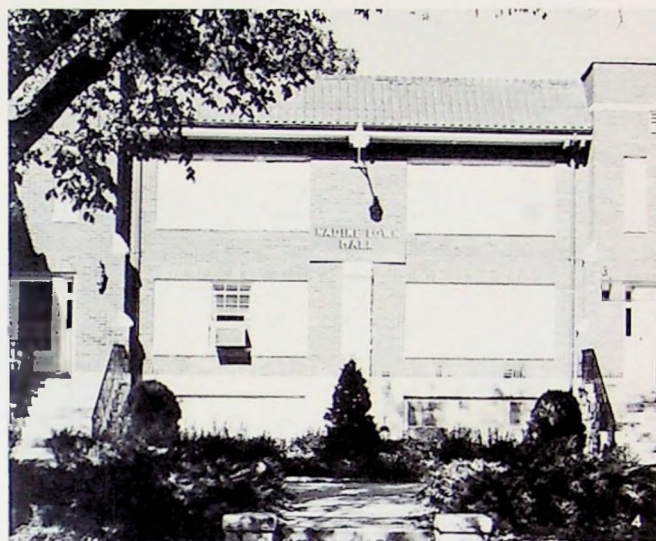

For some, college life was a totally new beginning; for others, college life was drawing near a close. In either case, the first week of school was a beginning to a new and exciting year for everyone.

New students brought a new vitality to the MCC campus. Freshman orientation provided an excellent opportunity for new and returning students to get acquainted. Dorm life also provided a continuous opportunity to develop closer relationships as the year progressed.

As classes convened for the first time and as studies began, the new school year was under way.

- 1 — Doug Deemer, Les Palich, and Henry Kozlowski enjoy another meal in the cafeteria.
- 2 — "I can't take this food anymore!"
- 3 — "Is this where I'm going to live?"
- 4 — Home sweet home, Lawn Hall.
- 5 — Linda Clarke and Vanessa Ward greet each other warmly.
- 6 — Valerie Eggleton assists students in the bookstore as they purchase materials.
- 7 — Dr. Leach advises David Burke during enrollment.
- 8 — Melanie Long sighs with relief, "I made it back all the way from Danville, Illinois!"

DORMITORY LIFE

"Today while our friendships still linger in time, I'll be there to help you when you're in a bind. A million tomorrows will all pass away ere I'll forget all the joys that are ours today."

If dorm life is anything, it isn't late night typing, early morning studies, or dorm duties. Surely, these are all a part; but dorm life is friendship, a special mid-afternoon talk, a walk in the rain, a shared prayer, and a time to grow.

Dorm life is learning to care about someone else more than you do yourself. It is finding someone who will laugh at your jokes even when they aren't funny. It's sharing a secret and helping each other be the best person he can be.

The dorm is where life-long friends meet and discover that there is more than one person that can be a best friend. It's learning that life's most beautiful people love God just as much as you do and that it doesn't matter if they weren't the star of their high school basketball team.

Dormitory life is a year long chance to grow.

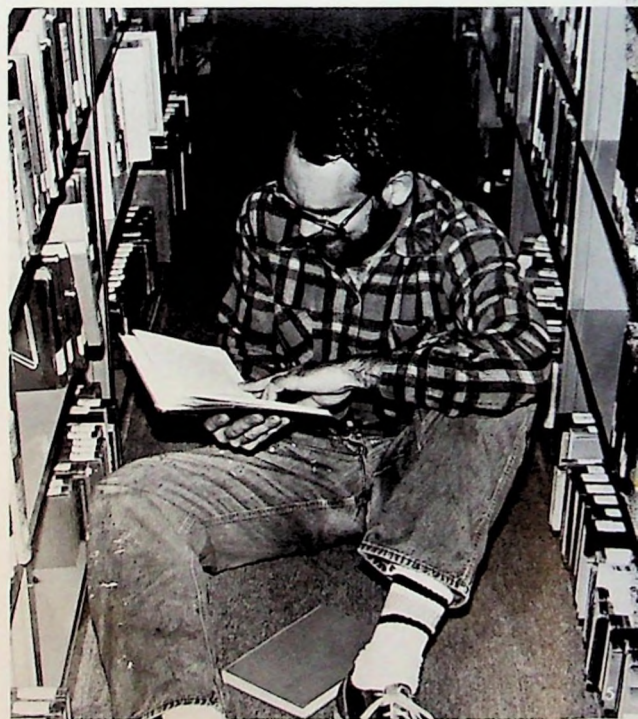

- 1 — Memorial Hall and Joliffe Hall
- 2 — The men in waiting at Johnson Hall.
- 3 — "No, Laurie can't come, will I do?"
- 4 — David Burke and Chris Loeppke check their mail.
- 5 — Doug Deemer, Chris Loeppke, and Mr. Eggleton enjoy the campus carnival.
- 6 — "Don't take that picture!"
- 7 — Students take advantage of the salad bar in the cafeteria.
- 8 — James Taylor diligently studies in his room in Lown Hall.

THE GLORIOUS TASK

Academics are the hub of campus life. A student's average day may include a 7:30 Greek class; a morning in the Library writing a paper; an evening memorizing Doctrine verse; and all too often, an "all nighter" at Sambo's. Whatever it may take to "make it through," it's all worth it because of that great day in May.

- 1 — Oh, I finally got it!
- 2 — It's Greek to me.
- 3 — Where is that town?
- 4 — Here we go again.
- 5 — Linda, I can't find it!

GROWING TOGETHER

The Religious life of the student is an important aspect of campus life. Students practice faith and fellowship by becoming involved personally in small group Bible studies and prayer groups, and corporately in Chapel and dorm devotions which together are designed for spiritual growth and maturity. The concern, commitment, and fellowship shown by the MCC family, one for another, are aspects of life on campus that make experiences memorable.

- 1 — Jill Cripe ready to slumber
- 2 — Morning devotions are important
- 3 — We can't take it any longer
- 4 — Chapel a twice weekly refreshment
- 5 — Sharing lives is important to growth.

MARRIED LIFE

- 1 — Melody and Tom Walters enjoy the moonwalk at MCC Days.
- 2 — Ben Harris goes trick-or-treating.
- 3 — Kathy and Glen Nash enjoy doing dishes together.
- 4 — Linda Smith — late for class!
- 5 — Carol, I really don't know about this soup!

MOVING UP

Moving up the ladder of class status can, at times, be a very trying experience. In looking ahead to graduation, becoming a Senior, Junior, or Sophomore, the question comes to mind, "Can I measure up?" Growing into mature leaders is, in part, what we have hoped to accomplish this year. With new class status comes new roles and responsibilities. Students equip themselves differently to meet this new set of expectations. Some prepare with the help of a friend, some by sheer physical exertion, some by diligent study, and yet others by perfecting their creative abilities.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is a representative body comprised of elected delegates from academic classes, living units, and campus organizations. The purpose of Student Council is to contribute toward a threefold goal of growth academically, spiritually, and socially. The council allows the student body an opportunity to express their ideas on needs and concerns of the campus.

- 2 — Back — Tom Walters, Larry Weigant, Cam Deemer, Tim McBath, Greg Smith, Glen Nash, Chris Loeppke, James Taylor, Front — Marilou Keller, Linda Clarke, Jolene Jansen, Thadd Hinkle, David Burke, Dale Yoder, and Melanie Long.

OF, BY, AND FOR THE STUDENTS

Student Council funds help to sponsor various activities on Campus including Missions Emphasis Week, Parents' Days, after-game parties, Winter Banquet, Spring Banquet, Student-sponsored Chapels, and Orientation.

VISION — FROM SCRATCH

Layouts, copy prints, deadlines — these were the bywords of the Vision staff, who met twice weekly (and often out of class) to organize and produce another chapter of MCC history. Regular staff members were Skip Milam, editor; Leah Ann Cook, layout editor; Tom Walters, layouts; Wally Ruth, layouts; Debbie Worcester, layouts; William Sexton, copy and layouts; Mark Palich, photographer; Robert Mullin, sponsor.

LORD'S SHEPHERDS

This missions group planned and directed Missions Emphasis Week, generated a monthly prayer list, visited a nursing home, collected canceled stamps for orphans overseas, attended a prison worship service, participated in a work day at Alpha Christian Children's Home, and attended the National Missionary Convention in El Paso, Texas.

The most important aspect of the Lord's Shepherds is the spiritual growth within the group. They also emphasize spending time in prayer. Most important, they help prepare young men and women to commit themselves to the Great Commission.

- 1 — 79-80 officers, Chuck Kerns and Sue Donnelly
- 2 — This year's missions group was one of the largest in recent years. Back row: Chuck Kern, Kathy Kern, Rafael Inchaustegui, Dave Frymire, David Burke, Mary Solomona, Deb Tice, Sue Donnelly, Vienna Dunham, Regina Devall, Elias Tolentino.
- 3 — One of the speakers for this year's missions week was Dewey Thackston, from T C M.

SERVICE ORGANIZATION KEEPS BUSY

"Service to our Lord through service to our community" is the motto for the MCC Compass Club. The Club is a service organization which keeps busy washing cars, raking leaves, etc. Every month a special speaker is invited to speak at the club's program meetings. The club's goal is for the community to come to know about Christ and MCC.

- 1 — Julie Woldridge, the able leader of the club
- 2 — Valerie Bowersox puts in a comment on finances.

CELEBRATION SINGERS

The Celebration Singers are the musical ambassadors of MCC.

Highlights for the fall semester included a performance at the Kansas Christian Convention in Wichita and the Fall Mini-Tour, which took them to Kansas churches in Garden City; Sublette; Medicine Lodge; White City; and Amarillo, TX. The group was featured for the Benefit Dinner and the Fall Festival of Faith in November. The Singers performed for the Kansas Farm Bureau State Convention in Topeka and also taped a special Christmas television show in December.

During second semester, the choir performed a musical entitled Acts based on events in the book of Acts. They traveled to Kansas churches in Plainville, Oakley, and Norton to present this musical. Celebration Singers also appeared at MCC's Preaching Convention, sang for Women's Days, and culminated the year with their annual Spring tour, May 17-June 1, to churches in Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois, Missouri, Colorado, and New Mexico.

1 — Kim E. Clowe, Director
2 — Celebration Singers rehearse

INSPIRATION RINGERS

Ringling English handbells in praise is a newly popular and growing form of musical worship in our churches across the land. MCC sees the need to prepare young people to lead in this music ministry.

In 1974, Mrs. T.H. Johnson gave the first gift to begin our fund for a set of bells in memory of her husband and long-time president of MCC. The bells were purchased in 1975, and a choir was quickly organized. Now, five years later, we have graduates directing other bell choirs.

Interest in bell ringing continues to grow in the churches. We must also expand our college program to provide well-prepared leadership. The T.H. Johnson Memorial Bell Fund, therefore, has a new goal — a complete five-octave set of bells.

- 1 — Dale Aldridge, Pete Bradshaw, Marilou Keller, Scott Handley, Shelly Schaffner, David Flint, Barb Christofanelli, Bruce Long, Tami Schroeder, and Mark Liem.
- 2 — Dale Aldridge, Director
- 3 — Inspiration Ringers entertain guests during their Christmas Ring.

NEW CREATION SINGERS

The New Creation Singers, under the direction of Larry Weigant, had an exuberant year. Following a five concert tour the choir joined the Instrumental Ensemble, Inspiration Ringers, and Celebration Singers in the Annual Christmas Concert. The spring brought no rest as the choir joined with the 1st Baptist Church Choir and presented the musical Celebrate Life by Buryl Red. New Creation also went on a five day spring tour in April and performed before the college in a Spring Concert.

INSTRUMENTAL ENSEMBLE

Psalm 150 challenges the worshiper to praise the Lord with all musical instruments and singing. The MCC Instrumental Ensemble, directed by Professor Richard Terry, exists to foster and encourage instrumental music in the church as it relates to the ministry of music. Performances during the year included chapel services, two five-concert weekend tours, and several music functions in area churches. It affords students an opportunity to maintain their playing abilities while permitting them to serve the Lord in an exciting ministry.

TRIUMPHANT SOUND

Triumphant Sound, a group of 7-8 students chosen to represent MCC in the area of public relations, travels throughout the summer months with additional commitments during the school year. The purpose of Triumphant Sound is to glorify God through the discipling of group members, providing the body of believers a ministry of exhortation (Eph. 4:11-16), and the recruiting of students for Christian service at MCC.

Group members for 1979: Gary and Becky Walker, Rex Armstrong, Vana Schipper, Tony Thornton, John Strifler, Jolene Jansen.

Group members for 1980: Tim McBath, Gordon Gray, Jeff Spielman, Vanessa Hughes, Oneta Kruse, Denise McMullen, Denise Wren, Deana Blackwell.

BE OF GOOD CHEER

Karen Thomas, Laurie Yarnell, Medge Owen, and Pam Hamilton provided cheer-ful crowds for the varsity basketball team. They also sold "Superfan" T-shirts to supporters.

CRUSADERS GO CROSS COUNTRY

This year's first cross-country team consisted of Mike Polson, Greg Jarrett, Elias Tolentino, Gary Woodward, Randy Klein, and Pete Bradshaw. These men decided that it was time that Manhattan Christian College be represented in the MCCC Cross Country League. Although they did not have a coach or a planned schedule of practice, they found time to run during the day, and at times, during the evening.

The meets consisted for a four-mile run designated by the host team. The runners would "look the course over" and decide when and where each would make his move.

MCC WOMEN

M.C.C. Women is composed of women faculty and staff members, wives of faculty and staff members, and faculty and staff emeritus women.

The purpose of this organization is to provide the social life for the MCC faculty and staff; to serve in whatever ways possible to benefit the life of the entire college; and to endeavor to establish relationships between MCC Women and church women in Manhattan and our constituent churches.

Among the many activities the MCC Women sponsored were the Ice Cream Social, Faculty/Staff Socials, Women's World, Faculty/Staff family picnic, and the Senior/Faculty/Staff Banquet. They also sponsored receptions for convocation, the Athearn Lectures, the Christmas concert, the Alumni Preaching Convention, and commencement.

1979-1980 officers were Carol Smith, President; Barbara Cook, Vice President; Susan Clowe, Secretary; Charlesa Whitaker, Treasurer.

CHRISTIAN ACTION MEANS INVOLVEMENT

Christian Action is one of the many requirements of students for graduation. Students can choose from many different activities for their Christian Action emphases which will better prepare them in their Christian lives and professions.

- 1 — Are we all getting in there!
- 2 — Mr. Aldridge, Christian Action Director, reviews a request for a gospel team.

THE WORD GOES OUT

For any educational experience to be of greatest value, it must apply classroom learning to life experience. The integration of class content and field experience is achieved at M.C.C. through the Student Ministry and Internship Programs. Students may select from one of five training models in order to gain this experience; Pastoral Ministry, Youth Ministry, Education Ministry, and Missions.

During the summer of the 1979-1980 school year, students were involved in all of these programs. Churches, Missions, evangelistic associations have responded to the program enthusiastically and are joining hands with the college in this educational process.

In addition to the Intern Program, 21 students are serving in student ministries throughout Kansas. They drive 3572 total miles each weekend, preaching, teaching, counseling, and generally assisting congregations which might not otherwise have ministerial leadership. These programs, under the supervision and guidance of the Department of Ministry, follow the time-honored practice of on-the-job training as a way of attaining growth experientially.

CHAPEL PROVIDES GROWTH

Carrying the theme, "Growing in Christ," chapel services, held Tuesday nights and Thursday mornings, provided the MCC family with a time of inspiration, worship, and fellowship. Students found the messages, which were brought by area speakers, missionaries, staff members, puppets, and musical groups very informative and enlightening.

New windows designed with crosses, having a stained glass effect, were an added feature to Valerius Chapel this year.

"I go to chapel because I need the spiritual revitalization," remarked Dean Boston. Chris Townsend said, "I enjoy getting an introduction to the good speakers of the Christian churches and the Restoration Movement."

Whatever reasons students had for attending chapel services, one can be sure that every person came out of each worship hour blessed and challenged by the messages presented from God's Word.

MISSIONS EMPHASIS WEEK

On October 1 and 2, the Lord's Shepherds presented its annual Missions Emphasis Week, with the theme, "The Compassionate Touch."

Bernel Getter, a missionary to India; Dewey Thackston, a missionary with Taking Christ to the Millions behind the Iron Curtain; and David Scates, a missionary to the Navajo Indians instilled in the minds of the students, faculty, and staff the need for world evangelizing with the love and mind of Christ.

- 1— Elias Tolentino reads Scripture during one of the sessions.
- 2— David Scates, missionary to Navajo Indians.

ICL MEETS ON CAMPUS

The International Center for Learning was held October 5 and 6. ICL's goal is to help both laymen and professional Christian Education staff make Sunday School a place where students can discover new truths from God's Word and its application to daily living. I.C.L. is a partner with the church in preaching God's Word. I.C.L. commits itself to the task of making Christ known through the teaching of God's Word.

- 1 — I.C.L. workshop in session
- 2 — Seminars are good times to renew acquaintances.
- 3 — Participants compare notes between sessions.
- 4 — Registration begins the morning at I.C.L.

SHANNON SPEAKS AT ANNUAL BENEFIT DINNER

The Eighth Annual Benefit Dinner, held Nov. 2, featured Robert Shannon, Senior Minister of First Christian Church in Largo, Florida. Mr. Shannon is known as one of America's most able speakers. His ministry at Largo has been crowned by numerical and personal growth on the part of the membership.

Robert and Larry Limbocker, chefs from Manhattan, prepared the dinner, and MCC's Celebration Singers delighted guests with an abbreviated concert.

Patrons who contributed $100 or $125 to the Benefit Dinner Fund were eligible to attend.

Through the generous contributions of friends, the college has been able to complete many projects through the years. The net proceeds of this 1979 Benefit Dinner were applied against the capital expansion program of the College.

- 1 — Tim Maddock and Deaune Dunn mingle with the guests.
- 2 — Guest speaker, Robert Shannon.
- 3 — Benefit Dinner guests were packed like sardines!
- 4 — Charlesa and Stan Whitaker, and Joan and Donn Leach fill their cups with punch.

FESTIVAL OF FAITH FEATURES STEVE EDWARDS

On Nov. 9 and 10, more than 250 high school students visited MCC for the annual "Fall Festival of Faith."

Steve Edwards, Senior Minister of the Parkland Christian Church in Parkland, Washington, was the featured guest speaker.

A Festival Banquet was held Friday night, the 9th, at the KSU Union, followed by a special home concert by "Triumphant Sound."

The Saturday morning main session held at All-

Faith Chapel on the KSU campus featured music by the Celebration Singers and Inspiration Ringers, as well as an inspirational message by Steve Edwards.

Saturday afternoon, prior to the closing session, was the Campus Carnival. Amusement rides, including a "Moonwalk" and a 42-ft. ferris wheel, and a concession stand, dunk tank, informational and activity booths, and balloons were all a part of the excitement and fun.

- 1 — The official balloon pusher and Carnival Clown, Skip Milam.
- 2 — Guest speaker, Steve Edwards, challenges students at the closing session.
- 3 — "Rise Up Oh Men Of God" exclaims a prospective student while being zapped with the hot seat during the carnival.
- 4 — "What are we doing in this crepe paper jail?"

ATHEARN LECTURES

The featured speaker of this annual event, Dr. H. Eugene Johnson, is the author of several books dealing with beliefs and membership in the Christian Churches. He has written many articles for the Christian Standard and Fellowship Magazines.

The Athearn Lectures received their name after Walter Scott Athearn, who is called "the father of Christian education."

The theme of the 1979 Lectures, December 4, 5, 6, was "The Ministry of the Church." Specific topics were (1) Biblical Concepts of Ministry (2) Campbell and Stone: Our 19th Century Beginnings (3) The Developing Role of the Ordered Ministry and (4) Ministry of the Body.

JESUS CHRIST CELEBRATION

Speakers for the 1979 Winter Banquet were President W.F. Lown and Hiram Cassell. Congregational singing was led by Jay Thompson. Music was by the gospel team. A solo was by Shelly Schaffner. Scripture reading, Luke 2:1-20, was by Kristi Walkers. The Communion song was by Mark Bighee, Jeff Spielmer, and Pete Bradshaw. The Lord's Supper was taken by all present.

- 1 — Jim and Cam compare notes before the banquet.
- 2 — Smile for the camera folks.
- 3 — Where are those cinnamon rolls.
- 4 — Dean Cassel drives home a point.
- 5 — First Born in concert.

NOW THAT IT'S TIME TO GO

As we look back at this year, to our minds come the memory of many joys, happy moments, and trying experiences that were a part of our life here at M.C.C. Fond will be the memories of friendships made, of goals attained, and of fun we have had together. What we have gained here these past months are not just memories to hold dear but also experiences that will mold and shape our futures. Truly, Manhattan Christian College in its academics, its associations, and in its fellowship has accomplished, in each one of us, her goal: growth. For we have grown closer to our Lord, grown closer to one another, and grown closer toward being prepared for our lifes pursuit. Now, that it is time for us to go, we can not and should not do so before saying, "Thank You, M.C.C., for all that we have received."

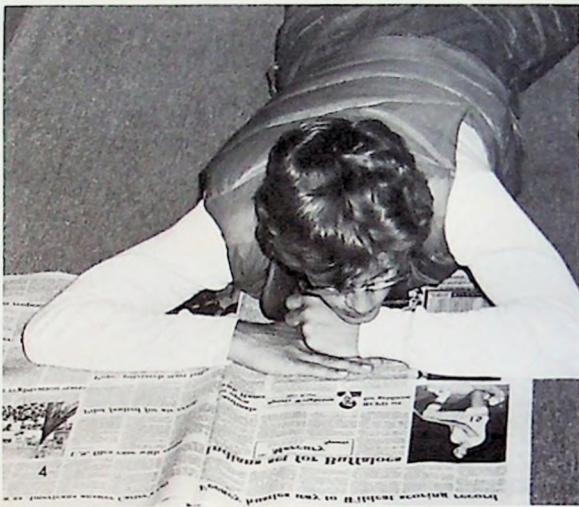

- 1— Remember when Paul Schumann came to Critical O.T. that day prepared to swim through the oceans of Dr. Warren thought?
- 2— Remember Colette when you finally found that book in the library?
- 3— Remember all those nice long and pleasant phone calls from Greg?
- 4—Remember all those nice friends I made?
- 5— Remember all those hours of relaxation shared with a close friend? But Oh, "The joy of victory and the agony of defeat."

- 1— Remember those long hours working on Dr. Van book reports?
- 2— Remember how strange Dr. Warren looked at the dunk tank?
- 3— Remember the campus Rabbi named Eggleton?
- 4— Remember how hard Randy Klein always studied — the paper?
- 5— Remember how people were always so sedate at M.C.C.?
